

TIME SUSSEX TRAVEL

LOOK OUT FOR...

the 11th-century
Trinity Church on Southover High Street

FIND...

the coat of arms of the London, Brighton and South Coast Railway
dating back to 1888

IMAGINE...

making this journey
in Tudor times.
How do you think it would be different?

LEWES STATION

Walking to Anne of Cleves House from Lewes Station

This walk takes roughly 8 minutes and is on flat pathways.

Walk out of the front of Lewes Station onto Station Road. Turn left towards the roundabout.

Before the roundabout use the crossing to walk onto the right hand side of the road.

Turn right at the roundabout and continue to the next mini roundabout. Cross straight over the mini roundabout and continue onto Southover High Street where Anne of Cleves House will be on your right.

Top tips for travelling by train

- Plan your journey, check for delays or changes before you leave on the National Rail website: www.nationalrail.co.uk
- Keep your ticket safe
- Pay attention to any announcements at the station and on the train
- If you need help find a member of station staff or a Help Point

GUESS...

which famous film was shot
at the Amberley caves?
(find out at the Museum)

LOOK OUT FOR...

the chalk cliffs in the distance from the station

FIND...

the history of Amberley Museum displayed on the walls of the passenger lounge

AMBERLEY STATION

Walking to Amberley Museum from Amberley Station

The walk takes roughly 5 minutes on one path. Amberley Station is an unmanned station which means there are no staff to help you.

There is step free access from platform 2 ONLY so make sure you check which platform you are arriving on prior to travelling.

Walk out of the main exit from platform 2 of Amberley Station and cross Station Road.

Pass through the gate. Follow the flat path down all the way to the main ticket office at the Museum entrance.

Top tips for travelling by train

- Plan your journey, check for delays or changes before you leave on the National Rail website: www.nationalrail.co.uk
- Keep your ticket safe
- Pay attention to any announcements at the station and on the train
- If you need help find a member of station staff or a Help Point

THINK...

Fishbourne Station was opened in 1906.
Can you think of things that have been invented since?

IMAGINE...

making this journey
in Roman times.
Without trains, how would people have travelled here?

LIST...

everything you saw on
your train journey

FISHBOURNE STATION

Walking to Fishbourne Roman Palace from Fishbourne Station

The walk takes roughly 10 minutes to walk on flat pavements and you will need to cross a few roads. Fishbourne Station is an unmanned station which means there are no staff to help you.

Leave the station from either platform 1 or 2. Turn right onto Salthill Road and continue until you reach the traffic lights.

Using the pedestrian crossing, cross over to the left hand side of Salthill Road and continue onwards until you see the brown sign for the Roman Palace.

Follow in the direction of the sign and turn left onto Roman Way. Continue on Roman Way, passing Fishbourne Primary School on your left until you reach the Museum.

Top tips for travelling by train

- Plan your journey, check for delays or changes before you leave on the National Rail website: www.nationalrail.co.uk
- Keep your ticket safe
- Pay attention to any announcements at the station and on the train
- If you need help find a member of station staff or a Help Point

LOOK OUT FOR...

the Bexhill war memorial at the bottom of Sea Road

GUESS...

how long the platforms
are at Bexhill Station?
(find out at the Museum)

DRAW...

the sea and the De La Warr Pavilion

BEXHILL STATION

Walking to Bexhill Museum from Bexhill Station

This walk takes roughly 15 minutes on flat pavements and you will need to cross several roads.

Walk out of the front entrance of the station. Turn right and cross over Endwell Road and continue down to the end of Sea Road.

Turn right at the bottom of Sea Road onto Marina Road, continue past the De La Warr Pavilion on your left.

Cross over the roundabout onto Edgerton Road. Continue until you reach Bexhill Museum on your right.

Top tips for travelling by train

- Plan your journey, check for delays or changes before you leave on the National Rail website: www.nationalrail.co.uk
- Keep your ticket safe
- Pay attention to any announcements at the station and on the train
- If you need help find a member of station staff or a Help Point

DRAW...

the Church of St Mary on St Marys Road

GUESS...

how long is the Adur Ferry Bridge?
(find out the answer at the Museum)

COUNT...

the number of boats you can see along the River Adur?

SHOREHAM-BY-SEA STATION

Walking to Marlipins Museum from Shoreham-By-Sea Station

This walk is roughly 10 minutes on flat pavements and you will need to cross some roads

Walk out of the main entrance of Shoreham-By-Sea Station. Turn right and walk to the end of the road and then turn left onto Brunswick Road.

Walk to the end of Brunswick Road. When you get to the Methodist Church, cross over the road and turn right on to St Marys Road.

Just before you reach the graveyard, turn left onto East Street and continue to the High Street which runs along the River Adur. Turn right and keep walking until you reach Middle Street, where the Museum will be on your right.

Top tips for travelling by train

- Plan your journey, check for delays or changes before you leave on the National Rail website: www.nationalrail.co.uk
- Keep your ticket safe
- Pay attention to any announcements at the station and on the train
- If you need help find a member of station staff or a Help Point

